children s literature can be a powerful way to encourage and empower efl students but is less commonly used in the classroom than adult literature this text provides a comprehensive introduction to children s and young adult literature in efl teaching it demonstrates the complexity of children's literature and how it can encourage an active community of second language readers with multilayered picturebooks, fairy tales, graphic novels and radical young adult fiction. It examines the opportunities of children's literature in EFL teacher education, including the intertextuality of children's literature as a gate opener for canonised adult literature, the rich patterning of children's literature supporting creative writing, the potential of interactive drama projects, close readings of texts at the centre of contemporary literary scholarship yet largely unknown in the EFL world, provide an invaluable guide for teacher educators and student teachers, including works by David Almond, Anthony Browne, Philip Pullman and J. K. Rowling, introducing a range of genres and their significance for EFL teaching. This study makes an important new approach accessible for EFL teachers, student teachers and teacher educators.

Story Time at the Public Library is the first exposure to books outside the home for many preschool children. For the librarian, it is an exciting opportunity to instill in youngsters a love of reading and books. But coming up with new ideas that hold the children's attention can be trying. Until now, here are 55 tried and true Story Hour programs with a thematic approach. All are highly flexible and adaptable across the full preschool age range. Most of the ideas are arranged under one of eight specific themes that include four to eight one-hour programs: Barnyard Animals, The Caldecott Medal, Colors, Families, A Storytelling Feast, The Five Senses, Reptiles and Amphibians, and Around the World. There are also 18 individual holiday and seasonal programs. All Story Hours provide ideas for name tags, suggested audiovisual materials, recommended story, poetry, and song selections, additional titles, and a full description of the activity.

Literacy for the 21st Century 2e gives students the strategies and ability to teach literacy effectively in Australian classrooms, linking the theory and research to classroom practice and with a greater emphasis on the use of digital literacies, students will gain a practical understanding of teaching reading and writing.

This practical guide provides teachers with a step-by-step process for implementing a set of questioning strategies known as the questioning cycle. This strategy supports teachers in planning and asking questions, assessing students' responses, and following up those responses with more questions to extend thinking. From publisher description.

This book suggests ideas for sharing literature that may be utilized in developing a scope and sequence of literature experiences for children in grades K-5. For primary grades K-2, the activities are primarily arranged through sharing the works of a particular author or illustrator. Through this deliberate exploration, the child begins to know that person as a friend. s/he is excited about new books by that same author or illustrator and discusses books on a level not often achieved if authors are approached only haphazardly. Those included represent a variety of classic and current authors and illustrators too good to miss who have made a particular contribution to literature for young people.
